

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law Protection. Before the Indiana law was passed, we received 10 to 12 calls a week from solicitors. With the law, we seldom receive any calls from them. I do not purchase from nor contribute to phone solicitors, so it is not only a waste of their time and mine, but it is an annoyance to receive their calls. Thank you.